Q1) Read the text then answer the questions below: (18 points)

Who's the young man wearing the tunic? Is he your dad? No, it's my grandpa when he was a teacher. That's the traditional Jordanian costume. In the past, he didn't wear jeans, jumpers or jackets. He wore a tunic with long sleeves, called a thobe. Oh, and what's that on his head? It's a kufi yyah that people wore as a headdress. The black thing around it is an agal. It's a headband that keeps the kufi yyah from falling off your head. Did you know that some people still wear the traditional Jordanian costume? That's amazing! This is my mum and my aunt when they were young.

Asma: Which is your mum and which is your aunt? They're both wearing the same clothes!

Misaki: My mum is the one holding an umbrella. My aunt is the one with the blue purse. They are wearing kimonos. It's a long, traditional Japanese robe with long sleeves that you wear by wrapping it around your body.

Asma: Wow! Traditional clothes are beautiful. Is the woman who's wearing the red dress your mother? Oh no, that's a photo of my sister on her wedding day. She's wearing a sari. She looks amazing! What's a sari? Is it a traditional garment? Yes, but Indian women still wear them today. A sari is a long dress with a piece of material, like cotton or silk, that covers the shoulders.
