

Writing

1. Personal health is the main source of happiness. Write an essay giving some examples of personal health showing the effects of being healthy. (2009 + 2008)
2. Schools must have connection with many parts of the society. Write an essay about the relationship between schools and parents suggesting some ways to improve this relationship. (2009 + 2008)
3. Write a blog about your future career. Why have you chosen this career? What should you do to achieve your goals? (2009)
4. A strong community leads to a strong country. Write an essay about the benefits of having a strong community, suggesting some ways to make our community stronger. (2009 + 2008)
5. During the last 100 years, Jordan achieved huge advances in different fields mainly in health and education. Write an essay discussing the reasons of these advances and their impacts on Jordanian society. (2009 + 2008)
6. Some people believe that the main purpose of education is to help the individual to become useful for society, while others believe it should help individuals to achieve their ambitions. Discuss both sides and give your opinion." (2009 + 2008)
7. Nowadays, fast food is becoming a common meal option among adults in many countries. Write an article about fast food addiction discussing the causes and effects of its growing popularity, its impact on health, and offering tips for adults on how to develop healthier eating habits. (2009 + 2008)
8. Future houses are expected to be more comfortable, efficient, and connected to modern technology. Describe what your future house would be like, explaining how technology will control different parts of it and how this will influence your daily life. (2009)

9. In some countries the population increases rapidly. Write an essay about the reasons of fast-growing population and give some solutions for this problem. (2009 + 2008)
10. Agriculture is considered as the nerve of life. Write an essay about the importance of agriculture in our lives, suggesting some ways to improve it. (2009 + 2008)
11. A formal email to a university administration complaining about the poor condition of campus facilities and requesting immediate improvements.
12. A formal email to a public transportation company reporting frequent delays and requesting a better schedule management system. (2009 + 2008)
13. Testing with computers instead of pencil and paper will leave students more prepared for the future. Do you agree? Write an essay discussing the advantages and disadvantages of each way of testing expressing your point of view. (2009 + 2008)
14. A formal email to a fast food restaurant chain in your country describing the problem of misusing disposable plates, spoons and boxes and urging to take a serious action. (2009 + 2008)
15. Testing with computers instead of pencil and paper will leave students more prepared for the future. Do you agree? Write an essay discussing the advantages and disadvantages of each way of testing expressing your point of view. (2009 + 2008)
16. A formal email to the customer service department expressing a complaint about a defective product you purchased, emphasizing that the customer is always right and requesting a resolution. (2009 + 2008)
17. Write about a local park. Describe it in detail, explaining what you liked and what could be improved. (2008)