Tom: Who's the young man wearing the tunic? Is he your dad?

Kamal : No, it's my grandpa when he was a teacher. That's the traditional Jordanian costume. In the past , he wore a tunic with long sleeves, called a thobe.

Tom: Oh! and what's that on his head?

Kamal: It's a kufiyyah that people wore as a headdress. The black thing around it is an agal. It's a headband that keeps the kufiyyah from falling off your head. Some people still wear the traditional Jordanian costume?

Misaki : This is my mum and my aunt when they were young.

Asma : Which is your mum and which is your aunt? They're both wearing the same clothes!

Misaki : My mum is the one holding an umbrella. My aunt is the one with the blue purse. They are wearing kimonos. It's a long, traditional Japanese robe with long sleeves that you wear by wrapping it around your body.

Salma: Is the woman who's wearing the red dress your mother?

Hina: Oh no, that's a photo of my sister on her wedding day. She's wearing a sari.

Salma: She looks amazing! What's a sari? Is it a traditional garment?
