Q1

Read the following article, and then answer all the questions that follow.

Have you ever visited the Jordan Archaeological Museum in Amman? it is a very special museum at the top of Citadel Hill. There are many treasures inside the museum. Scientists found the treasures at many archaeological sites in Jordan. One of the oldest treasures in the museum is the collection of statues from Ain Ghazal dating back to 6000 BCE. The people from Ain Ghazal painted the statues to show clothes and hair. They often used shells for the eyes. These statues are very beautiful. There is a very large collection of Islamic Art from the Umayyad, Mamluk and Ottoman periods. You can see very beautiful vases, bowls, jugs, plates and carved stones. There is also a large collection of coins. Visitors can also see armour, shields and swords. Many people also come to the museum to see the famous copper scroll which was found by archaeologists in 1952 CE. It is the only copper scroll in the world and it tells us about gold and silver treasures as well as where people hid them a long time ago.
